APEXTECH LAUNCHES SPIN-OFF APEXCONNECT

Apexconnect to Focus on Financial Data Integration

Arlington, VA, December 12, 2016– Apexconnect LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Apextech LLC, has launched a new company to focus on financial data integration as a platform service provider.

“Creating an independent entity of Apexconnect will allow us to increase our commercial client base and focus our business operations exclusively on Financial Data Integration” – Fred Persi, Partner

Apexconnect provides a SaaS financial and HR systems integration platform. Connecting organization’s ERP, HRIS, financial, and payment systems while applying client specific business rules enables our customers to optimize operations by leverage existing systems, integrating with new systems while maximizing working capital.

The Core Connector Platform™ helps transform business operations and improves accuracy by eliminating redundant data entry and combining operations from multiple systems. The Core Connector Platform™ from Apexconnect will eliminate time spent on manual tasks giving organizations the freedom to focus on the business goals and mission.

Working capital optimization using the Core Connector Platform™ can positively impact the performance and growth of organizations.
